and the University of Victoria (“UVic”)

WHEREAS:

- A. The Participant will be developing a project (the “Project”) as part of the SENG480B / CSC485E course (the “Course”) that will contain IP developed by the Participant. The Participant wishes UVic to waive its interest in such IP.
- B. As a condition of the waiver the Participant will agree to provide UVic with information about the Project (descriptive project title) and will agree to make the IP available to other class participants during the term of the course for educational purposes.

THEREFORE in consideration of good and valuable consideration, UVic and the Participant hereby agree as follows:

- 1. UVic does hereby sell, transfer and assign and agrees to assign all right, title and interest it may have in Intellectual Property (IP), as defined in UVic’s Policy on Intellectual Property, created by the Participant during the Course for his/her Project to the Participant.
- 2. The Participant hereby agrees not to, and not to cause or permit anyone else to, use any historical or background IP of either UVic, UVic faculty members or other students in the Course Project.
- 3. The Participant will make the IP used in the Project available to other students in the Course for the duration of the Course.
- 4. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that the University does not provide legal advice to the Participant in association with this agreement and that the Participant has had or has been given the opportunity to seek independent legal advice.
